

This 2-foot deep snowpit consisted of layers of crusts and facets. It was dug on a SW aspect at 9800' in Miller Drainage. Nothing broke clean in our stability tests and we are optimistic about it handling a load of new snow. Photo: GNFAC

Snowpit profile is here.

Advisory Region Cooke City Longitude -109.95W Latitude 45.05N

Forecast link: GNFAC Avalanche Forecast for Sat Nov 30, 2019GNFAC Avalanche Forecast for Sun Dec 1, 2019

Cooke City, 2019-11-27